Six Customer Love Strategies to Build Relationships that Last

Dear Richard,

Last week we were invited to participate in a one hour tele-seminar, with the organisation Network Marketing Australia. www.networkmarketingaustralia.com.au

If you enjoy reading Customer Love's weekly eNotes, you now have the opportunity to download and listen to this free tele-seminar about "Six Customer Love Strategies to Build Relationships that Last" with both Christine, Lee and Network Marketing Australia's host NAWMA.

They have given us permission to share it with you. To download the tele-seminar CLICK HERE

The most important element in any business is ACTION. Learn what you can, decide if it's a valuable idea for your business and apply it. Lots of small things layered on top of each other - can make a massive difference to creating customers for life.

We hope you enjoy the tele-seminar.

And remember, if you'd like to purchase Customer Love cards for your business or you need a top up CLICK HERE

Helping you to build relationships. . .one card at a time

Have a great day!

Lee and Chris

PS: A note from one of our Customer Love friends. . .

I just had a look on your website at the new range of cards. They are amazing! I send cards to my customers and colleagues (maybe not as often as I should!), and often get a very sincere "thank you" from the recipient. Thank you for giving me a unique tool to use to make a more personal connection.
