From Sylvia

Dear Business Swap Friends & Family,

Honeymoon and holiday! David & I have returned from the magnificent sunshine and snow experience in the south island of New Zealand where we, in heart and spirit connected to the calling of my bones... my land, my culture, my story... to be captured in the embrace of belonging is etched forever in my memory.

In early childhood I was raised between two cultures, the native knowing in my heart and the ideals of the modern world. I was left with a feeling of separateness from what and whom I desired to be with.

Since conference I am privileged to receive emails from so many. Thank you for your open acknowledgement relating to the restriction of a money/month lifestyle. The five day Mastery retreats help people to come to a place of freedom by uncovering under-lying behaviors/habits - disappointing and debilitating cycles of life.

I grew to acknowledge that I was not alone, the pain and sadness of separateness is experienced by many and in many different ways. I studied many different disciplines, I gained ideas but not answers. I found a way to connect to the place of stillness, from there the inclusive process of belonging began. Inspired to work within the healing energies we invite you to join our Mastery program, where in easy-to-learn steps you connect to your own place of quiet assurance, love and joy.

Once discovered no matter what the challenges and successes of your future, your centeredness will bring you back to the place called love.

To know love is to know, freedom.

Kind blessings to you, Sylvia
